Action Briefs

Hot Lotto Drawing Time Changed July 1

As of July 1, Hot Lotto drawings changed from being held just after Powerball to just before Powerball at about 9:40 p.m.

Nothing else about the game has changed. Players pick five numbered white balls from 1 to 39 and one numbered orange "hot ball" from 1-19. There are two drawings per week — one on Wednesday and one on Saturday. A player wins the Hot Lotto jackpot if they match the first five numbers drawn (in any order) plus the Hot Ball. Players can win other cash prizes when they match correctly other Hot Lotto numbers drawn. See an Iowa Lottery brochure for details.

Underwood Woman Gets Father's Day Gift of $100,000!

Annette Koenig of Underwood has never received a Father's Day present before, but she got a big one this year!

Annette, 46, received a $100,000-winning Iowa's Cash Game ticket as a gift from her husband Dan! Dan won the prize in the June 7 drawing for the $100,000 Cash Game.

Annette explained that she was out of town when Dan realized he had the winning ticket. He decided to surprise Annette with the ticket as a present at the family Father's Day get-together.

"They all knew. I didn't know. And I was opening a gift in front of all of them not knowing what it was. It's the first time on Father's Day I've ever opened a present!" she said.

The gift was won with lucky numbers picked by Dan himself. As an Omaha fireman, Dan used his first fire truck's engine number, his birthday, Annette's birthday, one of their son's birthday and the number of his current fire engine.

"My husband just stopped on his way to work and he always buys two weeks at a time, so he just laid [the ticket] on the counter [and] had them check the numbers. [He] went and got his pop and when he [got] back they told him he was a winner!" Annette said.

Annette said she has no specific plans for the money, but has a couple of ideas:

"I told my niece [that] my candy dish will always be full!" she laughed.

Annette added, "We have two boys in college and we'll probably just enjoy." 🐾

It's the first time on Father's Day I've ever opened a present!" — Annette Koenig of Underwood
