

Joint Enrollment in Iowa

A snapshot of high school students enrolled in Iowa community college coursework

Each year, tens of thousands of Iowa high school students enroll in community college credit coursework. Most jointly enrolled students enroll through Senior Year Plus programs such as Postsecondary Enrollment Options (PSEO) and concurrent enrollment. Other students enroll independently as tuition-paying students or enroll in courses delivered through contractual agreements that do not meet the definition of concurrent enrollment.

Growth

Enrollment increased from 47,262 students last year to 50,082 this year, a 6.0 percent increase.

Thirteen of 15 community colleges experienced increased enrollments.

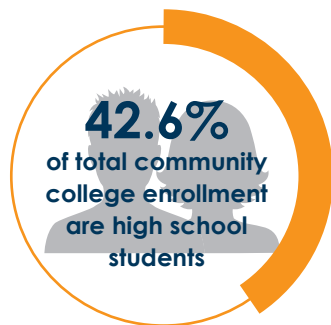

Fifteen community colleges experienced an increase in the number of credits taken by high school students.

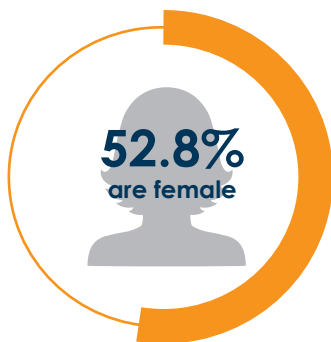

Average number of credit hours taken per student was 8.5, increasing by more than 1.5 credit hours since AY04

Demographics

High school students participating in joint enrollment programs equated to 42.6% of total community college enrollment. 42.7% of joint enrollment participants were high school seniors, and 35.4% were juniors.

52.8% of participants in joint enrollment programs were female compared to 56.2% for total credit student enrollment.

17.8% of participants in joint enrollment programs reported a racial or ethnic minority background compared to 24.3% of total credit student enrollment.

Areas of Study

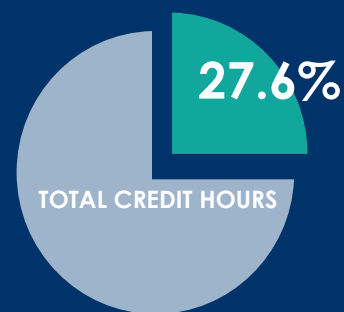

The most common subject areas in which students jointly enrolled were English, social science and history, mathematics, health care sciences and manufacturing.

Of courses taken, 35.1 percent were classified as CTE (1.4% increase from AY21) and 64.9 percent were classified as arts and sciences (1.4% decrease from AY21).

JUST THE FACTS ON JOINT ENROLLMENT IN IOWA

Joint enrollment programs account for 27.6 percent of total credit hours.

Jointly enrolled students earned 580 associate degrees, 283 diplomas and 941 certificates simultaneously with their high school diplomas, an increase of 60.7 percent from AY21.

Associate degrees	580
Diplomas	283
Certificates	941

Among high school students, 97.1 percent participated in joint enrollment courses delivered through a contractual agreement between a community college and school district. Tuition-paid courses accounted for the remaining 2.9 percent of total joint enrollment.

