GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 53. The governing board of any state department, institution, or agency, or, if there be no governing board, the head of any department, institution or agency, in the interest of economy and efficiency, may, with the written consent and approval of the governor and state comptroller, first obtained, at any time during the biennium, partially or wholly use its unexpended appropriations for purposes properly within the scope of such department, institution or agency.

Sec. 54. No state department, institution, or agency receiving appropriations under the provisions of this act shall expend funds or approve claims in excess of its appropriations, except as otherwise provided in this act. If the expenditures of any state department, institution, or agency, shall in any other manner exceed the amounts of its appropriation, the members of the governing board of any such state department, institution or agency who shall have voted for such excessive expenditures, or, if there be no governing board, the head of any such state department, institution, or agency making excessive expenditure or approving excessive claims shall be personally liable for the full amount of the unauthorized deficit thus created.

When the appropriation of any department, institution or agency is insufficient to properly meet the legitimate expense of such department, institution or agency of the state, the state comptroller, with the approval of the governor, is authorized to transfer from any other department, institution or agency of the state having an appropriation in excess of its necessity, sufficient funds to meet that deficiency.

Sec. 55. No obligation of any kind, whatsoever, shall be incurred or created subsequent to June 30, 1939, against any appropriation made by this act, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, and, on June 30, 1939, it shall be the duty of the head of each department, board or commission, receiving appropriations under the provisions of this act, to file with the state comptroller a list of all expenditures for which warrants have not been drawn.

Sec. 56. All appropriations made by this act, remaining unexpended or unobligated, at the close of business on December 31, 1939, shall revert to and become a part of the general fund in the state treasury.

Sec. 57. All salaries provided for by this act are in lieu of all existing statutory salaries, for the positions provided herein, and shall be payable in equal monthly or semi-monthly installments, and shall be in full compensation for all services during the biennium ending June 30, 1939.

Employees of the state are granted one week's vacation after one year's steady employment and two week's vacation after two or more years' employment, with pay. Leave of absence of thirty days is granted to employees on account of sickness or injury, accumulative for three consecutive years, with pay at the discretion of the heads of departments.

Any person while traveling on state business, driving his own car, may charge for same at the rate of not to exceed five cents (5c) per mile for use of said car, regardless of the number of passengers carried.

Sec. 58. Employees of the state shall be under the control of the head of the department and the compensation paid shall be subject to the approval of the governor and state comptroller. Any employee may be assigned to such duties as the department head shall direct and subject to dismissal by him, subject to the provisions of Chapter 60 of the 1935 Code of Iowa. The increases granted to the departments, boards, and institutions are made with the recommendation that there be no increase in salaries to employees receiving more than $1200.00 per year, except as provided for herein.

Sec. 59. For the office of the state comptroller there is hereby set aside from the collection of taxes on motor vehicle fuel, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) annually, for use in employing sufficient help in writing motor vehicle fuel tax refund warrants.

Sec. 60. For the office of the industrial commissioner there is hereby set aside from the primary road fund the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) annually, for use in paying all claims of employees of the state highway commission who are injured or killed while on duty, as provided for in Chapter 70 of the Code of 1935.

Sec. 61. For the office of the industrial commissioner there is hereby set aside from the liquor control act fund the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) annually or so much thereof as may be necessary, for use in paying all claims of employees for the liquor control commission who are injured or killed while on duty, as provided for in Section 1418 of the Code of 1935.

Sec. 62. For the office of the attorney general there is hereby set aside from the primary road fund the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) annually, for the purpose of covering all costs of litigation arising from or pertaining to primary roads.
