The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Many materials can be made available in alternative formats for ADA clients. To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call 202-720-5964.

Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Stanley R. Johnson, director, Cooperative Extension Service, Iowa State University of Science and Technology, Ames, Iowa.

What can YOU do in 4-H? YOU decide!!

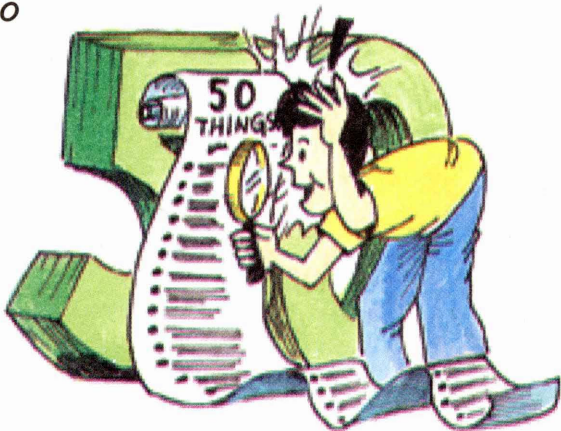

4-H gives YOU the chance to learn about NEW things like—writing stories, taking pictures, using computers, cooking, backpacking and camping, caring for pets, fashion, studying rocks, or bugs. YOU can find out about bicycling, drama, weather, model rockets, beekeeping, arranging flowers, putting together engines, drawing and painting, growing vegetables and herbs, making speeches, becoming a leader and a WHOLE LOT MORE!

There are more than 50 FUN projects for YOU to explore! YOU can work on projects on YOUR own or YOU can be part of a team working with YOUR 4-H group!

4-H has something for EVERYONE!

FUN, friendship, learning-by-doing, helping your community and travel are all part of 4-H. YOU can go to club meetings, go on field trips, go to 4-H camp, make new friends and have LOTS and LOTS of FUN!!!

4-H costs nothing to join—it's FREE and EVERYONE can be a member! 4-H is part of Iowa State University Extension. To join a 4-H club near YOU, call your ISU Extension county office. YOU can find information in your phone directory or on this brochure!
