MANY PATHS, BUT ONE GATE.

Towards the golden gate, to-day, we onward press,
 The reward of toils past, is the crown of true success.
 By different paths we seek, the best pursuits in life,
 In noblest work we cast our lot, in the progressive strife.
 Every power concentrating, in life's work we aim to rise,
 No thought of failure shall prevent us, win the richest prize.

We see beyond; the open gate, the paths we hope to tread,
 Beacon lights of warning, on life's path, are flashing signals red,
 At turning points a crisis waits, let wisdom fail not to decide
 If in the golden chariot of success, a star, of worthy pride.
 Than a galaxy of stars, of the first magnitude will shine
 All down the distant ages, from this class of '99.

Press onward to the pearly gate, with pulses beating fast,
 As you start with steady gait, "remember," the fastest may be last.
 Faithful work is an element of power, that tells in life's success,
 Purpose both to be and do, for everything competitive fire will test.
 The world by force is conquered, the future as the past will be.
 Go in faith, hope and courage, reward is sure to crown industry.

God knoweth what is best for us, in love He marks our way,
 After the shadow of sorrow, light breaks the golden bars of day.
 By the cross of life's painful struggles, is the shining path to the crown,

They write in tints that will not fade, and open the gates of renown.
 Then seek for the precious gems, of intelligence, integrity and love,

Your soul will beam in rays of lustre, as the radiant sun above.

To-day we start to reach the gate, each one a different path pursue.

To scenes we love, to teachers, to friends, to all we bid adieu.
 As golden years go circling round, in memory's chain we'll trace
 The faces dear, the scenes so bright, the starting point of life's great race.

Our prayer, like a sweet melody, vibrates in hearts a glad refrain,
 Upon the threshold now we part, at the gate we'll meet again.

Another gate before us stands, the hour will strike for us to die,
 Our labor done, the victory won, there is our rest beyond the sky.

Up the horizon new scenes appear, invite us to a fresh survey.
 The plaudits greet you all "Well done." faithful until this day.
 The sculptor's work is now complete, the character form appears.
 In finished beauty let it stand, the glory of endless years.

REV. R. VENTING.

LOVE * GO * WITH * YOU.

Love sincerely go with you to-day,
By its power bless, protect you,
By its light securely lead you;
Love sincerely go with you to-day.

Chorus—Go with you, go with you,
Go with you, till life shall end,
Go with you, go with you;
Love sincerely go with you to-day.

Love sincerely go with you to-day,
Friends and teachers all do greet you,
In prayer ask God to keep you;
Love sincerely go with you to-day.

(Repeat Chorus)

Love sincerely go with you to-day,
When life's perils thick confound you,
May Love's golden chain surround you;
Love sincerely go with you to-day.

(Repeat Chorus)

Love sincerely go with you to-day,
These Good Byes in future cheer you.
Now in parting, May God bless you;
Love sincerely go with you to-day.

(Repeat Chorus)
