JK 6360 .P4 N49 1965

NEW FACTS
ABOUT IPERS

Commitments are made to achieve broad diversification of investments by type, organization and maturity as well as by geographic distribution.

The average return is 4.61 percent on the 411,260 of new investments made to date in 1905.

SECURITIES HELD AUGUST 31, 1965
RATIO DISTRIBUTION	PAR VALUE
*BONDS 6.44%	$12,726,737.54
U.S. GOVERNMENT BONDS 13.31%	26, 250, 000.00
RAILROAD 14.38%	28, 345, 207.05
INDUSTRIALS 21.60%	42, 597, 616.47
PUBLIC UTILITIES 44.27%	87, 306, 000.00
100%	$197,225,561.06 GRAND TOTAL
* GOVERNMENT GUARANTEED MORTGAGES	$8, 321, 737.54 4.21%

$4,405,000.00 2.23%

OTHER GOVERNMENT BONDS

Questions About IPERS?

When you have questions about your IPERS program, don't remain in the dark. The IPERS staff will be happy to discuss the program with you and answer your questions. Our job is making sure that all members and their families know as much as possible about IPERS and receive the benefits they have coming to them.

Write, phone or stop in and visit us:

Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System Iowa Employment Security Commission 1000 East Grand Avenue Des Moines, Iowa 50319

Pamphlet IPERS 2

Extra copies of this flyer are available upon request.

October, 1965

