SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That the board of supervisors of each county, in which coal or other minerals are mined, may, at their first regular session in each year, appoint an inspector of mines, who must be practically acquainted with mining and competent to fulfill the duties of his office, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath for the faithful and impartial discharge thereof, and whose duty it shall be to inspect twice during each year all mines and collieries in his county, in which more than ten miners are employed, and apply scientific tests to ascertain the condition of the atmosphere in such mines, as affecting the life and health of miners and employees; and when he shall be satisfied of the prevalence of choke-damp, (carbonic acid gas,) or fire-damps, (light carbureted hydrogen gas,) in sufficient quantities to jeopardize the life or health of such employees or miners, he shall determine the number and capacity of additional entrances or shafts, or other means necessary for the proper ventilation of such mines, and to afford egress from and ingress to such mines in case of explosion or the falling-in of the entrance or shaft to such mines. It shall farther be the duty of the inspector to examine and test all machinery used in and about the mines for the purpose of assisting in mining operations, and ascertain if the same is kept in good repair and is sufficient to secure the safety of those operating such machinery.

Duty:
To examine collieries twice a year,
&c.;

To test machinery.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful for the inspector appointed under the provisions of this act to enter and inspect any and all mines in his district at such times as he may see fit, and to examine all machinery used in the operation of such mines, but not so as to unnecessarily hinder or obstruct the working of such mines or machinery; and if the owner, operator, or agent of any such mine shall refuse to permit said inspector to enter and inspect such mine as may be under his control, or to examine and test any machinery connected with such mine, the inspector shall file his affidavit, setting forth such refusal, with the judge of the circuit or district court of the circuit or district in which said mine is situated, in either term-time or vacation, and obtain an order on such owner, operator, or agent, commanding him to permit said inspector to perform the duties of his office, or be adjudged guilty of contempt of court and punished accordingly.

SEC. 4. The owner, operator, or agent of every coal mine or colliery, opened and operated by shaft or slope, shall provide suitable means for signaling between the bottom and top of such shaft or slope, and shall also provide safe means of hoisting and lowering persons employed at the mines, with sufficient cover overhead, on every box or carriage used for hoisting purposes, for the protection of persons so hoisted and lowered; and the top of each shaft or slope shall be securely guarded, and the entrance of every abandoned slope or air or other shaft shall be securely fenced off.

Precautions to be observed by operators of mines.

SEC. 5. No young person under ten years of age, or female of any age, shall be permitted to enter any mine to work therein; proof of age to be made by certificate or otherwise. The owner, operator, or agent of any mine violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars, to be recovered for the use of the school-fund.

Who may not work in mine.

Fine.

Duty of person having charge of mine in case of explosion.

Duty of inspector.

Fine for failure to give notice.

SEC. 6. Whenever an explosion or other accident shall occur at any mine, whereby loss of life or serious bodily injury is sustained, it shall be the duty of the person having charge of such mine to at once give notice to the inspector in and for the county in which the mine is situated; and, if any person is killed by such explosion or other accident, to the coroner of the county also; and the inspector, on being so notified, shall proceed to the scene of such explosion or other accident, and use such means as he may deem necessary for the safety of the men employed in such mine. He shall further investigate and ascertain, if possible, the cause of such explosion or other accident, and preserve a record thereof among the papers of his office. And in case the person in charge of any mine shall fail to give notice, as required by this section, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, to be sued for in the name of the state, for the use of the school-fund, before any court having jurisdiction.

Bore-holes.

SEC. 7. The owner, operator, or agent of any coal mine shall provide that bore-holes shall be kept six feet in advance of the face of each and every working place, when driving toward an abandoned mine, or part of a mine, suspected to contain inflammable gases, or to be inundated with water.

Underground manager.

SEC. 8. The underground manager of every mine must be a practical miner, or one acquainted with the working and management of mines.

Liability for damages for persons killed or injured.

SEC. 9. For any injury to persons or property occasioned by any neglect or violation of any of the provisions of this act, a right of action shall accrue to the party injured for any direct damages sustained thereby; and in case life is lost, by reason of such neglect or violation as aforesaid, the widow of the person so killed, or his lineal heirs or adopted children, or any other person or persons who were before such death dependent upon him for support, shall have a right of action for like damages for the loss of life or lives. Any miner, workman, or other person, who shall knowingly injure or destroy any water-gauge, barometer, air-course, or brattice, or shall obstruct or throw open any air-ways, or carry any lighted lamps or matches into places that are worked by the light of safety-lamps, or shall disturb any part of the hoisting machinery, or open a door in the mine and neglect or refuse to have it closed again, whereby danger is produced either to the mines or to those engaged therein; or who shall enter into any mine against caution; or who shall disobey any order given in pursuance of this act; or who shall do any willful act whereby the lives and health of persons working in the mine, or the security of such mine, or the machinery thereof, is endangered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Penalty for
acts.

SEC. 10. The inspector provided for by this act shall receive three dollars per day for the time necessarily employed in the discharge of his duties, to be paid out of the county treasury; but in case[s] where, on inspection, the provisions and requirements of this act are found not to have been complied with in operating a mine, then the expense of inspecting said mine shall be paid by the owner, operator, or agent of such mine, to be recovered if necessary by suit before any court having jurisdiction.

Pay of inspector, and by whom paid.

SEC. 11. In all cases where the inspection is called for by a written request of five miners working in any mine, or by the owners thereof, it shall be his duty to proceed at once to inspect the same when the parties so applying have deposited a sufficient sum in the hands of the county clerk to defray the expense of inspecting such mine. Where the mine proves defective, it shall be at the expense of the owners of the mine; and where the inspecting shows there was no necessity for the examination, it shall be at the expense of the parties demanding the inspection.

CHAPTER 60.

IN RELATION TO SAVINGS BANKS.

AN ACT to Provide for the Organization and Management of Savings Banks. S. F. 48.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That corporations to be known as savings banks may be formed, under and in accordance with the provisions of this act, for the purpose of receiving on deposit the savings and funds of others, and preserving and safely investing the same, and paying interest or dividends thereon; and such corporations, and the stockholders thereof, shall be subject to all the conditions and liabilities herein imposed; and hereafter no association shall be formed under the general incorporation acts for the purpose of transacting such banking business; and all corporations now organized thereunder and doing business as savings banks, shall, on or before the 1st day of July, A. D. 1875, conform to and reorganize under the provisions of this act, as hereinafter provided, and any failure or neglect of the proper officers of such associations to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be regarded as a forfeiture of all rights and privileges of such associations.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful for any number of persons, not less than five, to organize savings banks under the provisions of this act, with a paid-up capital stock of not less than ten thousand dollars in cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants, or under; and a paid-up capital stock of not less than fifty thousand dollars in cities of over ten thousand inhabitants; which said corporations shall be known as savings banks, and shall have power to transact the usual business of such institutions, but not to issue bank-notes to circulate as money, but no such association shall have the right to commence business until its officers elect, or its shareholders, shall have furnished to the auditor of state a sworn statement of the paid-up capital, and, when the auditor of state is satisfied as to the fact, he shall issue to such association a certificate authorizing it to commence business, a copy of which shall be published in some newspaper printed in the county where such association is located, for four consecutive weeks, at the expense of such association. If the auditor of state should deem it necessary before issuing a certificate, he may make a personal examination of capital stock, or cause one to be made by some competent person appointed by him, the expense of which shall be paid by the association.

SEC. 3. Any five or more persons of full age, a majority of whom shall be citizens of this state, who may desire to form an incorporated company for the purposes hereinbefore specified, shall make, sign, and acknowledge, before some officer competent to take acknowledgments of deeds, and file in the office of the recorder of the county wherein the principal place of business of Certified copy evidence.

SEC. 4. A copy of any articles of incorporation, filed in pursuance of this act and certified to by the recorder of the county in which it is filed, or by the secretary of state, shall be received in all courts, and in all actions and proceedings, as presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated.

Enumeration of powers.

SEC. 5. When the certificate of the auditor shall have been received, and the articles of incorporation shall have been filed and recorded, and publication shall have been made as hereinbefore provided, the persons who shall have signed and acknowledged the same, and such persons as thereafter become their associates, or successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, and by their corporate name shall have succession for the period limited, and power:

First. To sue and be sued in any court.

Second. To make and use a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure.

Third. To purchase, hold, sell, convey, and release from trust or mortgage, such real and personal estate as hereinafter provided for in this act.

Fourth. To appoint such officers, agents, and servants, as the business of the corporation shall require, to define their powers, prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation, and to require of them such security as may be thought proper for the fulfillment of their duties.

Fifth. To loan and invest the funds of the corporation; to receive deposits of money, and to loan and invest the same as hereinafter provided, and to repay such deposits without interest, or with such interest as the by-laws of the constitution may provide.

Sixth. To make by-laws, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, for the organization of the company, and the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs, the condition on which deposits will be received, the time and manner of dividing the profits and of paying interest on deposits, and for carrying on all kinds of business within the objects and purposes of the company.

Management

SEC. 6. The business and property of such savings banks shall be managed by a board of directors or trustees, of no less than five nor more than nine, all of whom shall be shareholders and citizens of this state, the first board to be designated in the articles of incorporation ; and who shall organize by taking an oath, diligently, faithfully, and impartially to perform the duties imposed upon them by this act, and not knowingly to violate, or willingly to permit to be violated, any of the provisions thereof; that said directors or trustees are the bona fide owners in their own right of the stock standing in their respective names on the books of the bank; and that the same are not hypothecated, or in any manner pledged as security for any loan obtained, or debt owing to said savings bank; a certificate of which oath, signed by each director, and certified to by the officers before whom it was taken, shall be filed and preserved in the office of the auditor of state. The call for the first meeting of directors or trustees shall be signed by one or more persons named as directors or trustees in the certificate, setting forth the time and place of meeting, which notice shall be delivered personally to each director, or published at least ten days in some newspaper published in the county in which is the principal place of business of the corporation, or, if no newspaper is published in the county, then in a newspaper nearest thereto. At their first meeting, and as often thereafter as their by-laws shall require, the directors or trustees shall elect, from their number, a president and one or more vice presidents for the ensuing year; and shall appoint a treasurer or cashier, and such other subordinate officers, agents, and servants as may be required, who shall hold their offices at the pleasure of the board, and who shall give such security for the faithful performance of their duties as may be required by the by-laws. All vacancies in the board of directors or trustees shall be filled, at the next regular meeting after such vacancy shall arise, from among the stockholders, and the person receiving a majority of the votes of the whole number of directors or trustees shall be duly elected. The directors or trustees, to hold office after the expiration of the term of those named in the certificate of incorporation, shall be annually elected at such time and place, and in such mode, and upon such notice as shall be provided by the by-laws of the company, and shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected and qualified. All such elections shall be by ballot, and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock held by him, and the persons so receiving the greater number of votes, shall be directors of [or] trustees. Shareholders may vote by proxy duly authorized, and no shareholder shall be entitled to vote whose liability to said bank is past due and unpaid. If it should happen at any time that an election of directors or trustees shall not be had on the day designated in the by-laws of the company, it shall be lawful on any other day to hold such election, after giving due notice, and the directors or trustees shall be continued in office until their successors are elected and qualified. A majority of the directors or trustees shall constitute a quorum of said board for the transaction of business, but said bank may provide in the by-laws that a smaller number, not less than five, one of whom shall be the president and [or] vice president, shall constitute a quorum, which number shall thereupon be authorized to transact business.

Deposits.	SEC. 7. All savings banks organized under this act may receive, on deposit, all such sums of money as shall from time to time be offered by tradesmen, merchants, laborers, servants, minors, and others. All such banks with a paid-up capital of ten thousand dollars may receive deposits to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars; those with a paid-up capital of twenty-five thousand dollars may receive deposits to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; those with a paid-up capital of fifty thousand dollars, deposits to the amount of five hundred thousand; those with a paid-up capital of one hundred thousand dollars, deposits to the amount of one million dollars; and no greater amount of deposits shall be received without a like proportionate increase of cash capital, and which capital shall be regarded a guaranty fund for the better security of depositors, and so invested in some safe and available securities.
Limits.	The deposits so received for the purpose of safe keeping, and invested as provided in this act, shall be paid to such depositor or his or her representatives when requested at such time or times, and with such interest, and under such regulations as the board of directors or trustees shall from time to time prescribe, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, which regulations shall be printed and conspicuously exposed in some place, accessible and visible to all, in the business office of said bank, and no alteration, which may at any time be made in such rules or regulations, shall in any manner affect the rights of depositors in respect to deposits, or the interest thereon, made previous to such alteration. It shall be lawful for savings banks to require sixty days' written notice of the withdrawal of any deposits, but when there are sufficient funds on hand the officers of the bank may in their discretion waive this requirement. It shall be lawful for savings banks to close any accounts upon written notice, as may be provided for in the by-laws, to a depositor to withdraw his deposit, after which notice it shall cease to draw interest: Provided , Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent such banks in their discretion from issuing certificates of deposits, payable on demand.
Repayment of deposits.	SEC. 8. All accounts upon which no deposit or drafts shall be made for a period of ten years in succession shall be so far closed that neither the sum deposited, nor the interest that shall have accrued thereon, shall be entitled to any interest after the expiration of the ten years from the date of the last deposit or draft. This provision, however, shall not apply to endowments for children, to trust estates, nor to other cases where special provision is made therefor at the time of the deposit thereof.
May require notice.	SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for the directors or trustees of any such savings bank to invest the funds or capital belonging to said bank, and all moneys deposited therein, and all the gains and profits thereof, only as follows, to-wit:
Accounts may be closed upon notice.	First. In the stocks or bonds, or interest-bearing notes or certificates, of the United States.
Accounts closed by limitation.	Second. In the stocks or bonds, or evidences of debt bearing interest, of this State.
Application.
Investment of funds.

Third. In the stocks, bonds, or warrants of any city, town, county, village, or school-district of this State, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this state, but not exceeding twenty-five per cent. of the assets of the bank shall consist of town, village, or school-district bonds or warrants.

Fourth. In notes or bonds secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon unincumbered real estate in this state, worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon.

Fifth. It shall be lawful for said banks to discount, purchase, sell, and make loans upon commercial paper, notes, bills of exchange, drafts, or any other personal or public security; but said bank shall not purchase, hold, or make loans upon the shares of its capital stock.

Sixth. In all cases of loans upon real estate, all the expenses of searches, examinations, and certificates of title, or the inspection of property, appraisals of value, and of drawing, perfecting, and recording papers, shall be paid by such borrowers. Wherever buildings are included in the valuation of any real estate upon which a loan shall be made by said bank, they shall be insured by the mortgager, for the benefit of the bank for at least two-thirds their value, in some reliable company, and the policy of insurance shall be duly assigned to the bank; and it shall be lawful for said bank to renew such policy of insurance from year to year, in case the mortgager neglects to do so, and may charge the same to him. All the necessary charges and expenses paid by said bank for such renewals shall be paid by such mortgager to the said bank, and shall be a lien upon the property so mortgaged until paid.

SEC. 10. It shall be lawful for savings banks to purchase, hold, and convey real estate only as follows, to-wit:—

First. The lot and building in which the business of the bank may be carried on.

Second. Such as shall have been purchased at sales upon foreclosure of mortgages owned by the bank, or upon judgment or decrees obtained or rendered for debts due it; and all such real estate as is described in this clause shall be sold by said bank within ten years after the title of the same shall be vested in it by purchases or otherwise.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the board of directors or trustees, from time to time, to regulate the rate of interest or dividends to be allowed to depositors, and to pay the same upon the presentation of the deposit-book or certificates; and after the payment of, or setting aside a sufficient amount to pay, the interest to depositors of said banks, and after deducting the necessary expenses of said banks, the board of directors or trustees may make from the surplus profits in hand in cash such dividends on the capital stock as in their discretion may seem best and proper.

SEC. 12. The capital stock of all banks organized under this act shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and shall be deemed personal property, and shall be transferable on the books of the banks in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws. No certificate representing shares of stocks shall

SEC. 14. Any person authorized thereto, by resolution of the board of directors or trustees of any corporation, association, or society, having funds deposited, or owning stock, in any bank formed under this act, shall be entitled to receive such deposit or to transfer such stock, and to cast the vote of such corporation, association, or society thereon.

Deposits by executors, &c.; by minors;

SEC. 15. Whenever any deposits are held by any person or [as] executor, administrator, trustee, or guardian, he shall be entitled to receive the same; and whenever any deposit shall be made by any minor the directors or trustees shall pay to such depositor such sum as may be due to him or her, although no guardian shall have been appointed by or for such minor, or the guardian of such minor shall not have authorized the drawing of the same; and the check, receipt, or acquittance of such minor shall be as valid as if the same was [were] executed by a guardian of said minor, or said minor was [were] of full age, if such deposit was made personally by said minor; and whenever any deposit shall be made in her own name by any woman being or thereafter becoming married, said director[s] or trustees shall pay such sum as may be due to her on her receipt or acquittance.

By married women.

Not to issue circulating notes nor to contract debts, except, &c.

SEC. 16. No bank organized under this act shall, by implication or construction, be deemed to possess the power of creating and issuing bills, notes, or other evidences of debt for circulation as money; nor shall it be lawful for such bank, or the directors or trustees thereof, to contract any debt or liability against the bank, for any purpose whatever, except for deposits and the necessary expenses of management and transacting its business; and the capital stock and the assets of the bank shall be security to depositors.

Security to depositors.

Directors not to be paid.

SEC. 17. No director or trustee of a saving[s] bank shall, as such, receive any pay or emolument for his services; and no trustee, officer, or servant of such savings bank shall, directly or indirectly, in any manner, use the funds of the said bank, or its deposits, or any part thereof, except for regular business transactions, and all loans made to said trustees, officers, servants, and agents of the bank shall be upon the same security [as] required of others, and in strict conformity to the rules and regulations of the bank; and all such loans shall be made only by the board, and shall be acted upon in the absence of the party applying therefor; but such reasonable compensation may be paid to the officers of the bank as may from time to time be fixed in the by-laws.

Use of funds by officers restricted.

Which statement shall be forthwith transmitted to the auditor of state and be by him filed in his office.

SEC. 23. The auditor of state shall, at any time he may see proper, make, or cause to be made, an examination of any association, as here[in]after provided, contemplated in this chapter, or he shall call upon any such association for a report of its state and condition as hereinbefore provided, upon any given day which has passed, as often as four times in a year, and which report the auditor shall cause to be published for one day in some daily newspaper published in the county where such association shall be located, or, if there be no such newspaper published in said county, then such report shall be published in some weekly newspaper printed in said county for one week, and the expenses of such publication shall be paid by such institution.

Auditor to examine association; To call for report four times a year.

Same to be published.

Auditor to report to general assembly, with recommendations.

SEC. 24. It shall be the duty of the auditor of state to communicate to the legislature, at each session, a statement of the condition of every savings bank, from which reports have been received for the preceding year, and to suggest any amendments in the law relative to savings banks which in his judgment may be necessary or proper to increase the security of depositors.

Duty of auditor where bank is violating law, or doing unsafe business.

SEC. 25. Whenever it shall appear to the auditor that any savings bank has been guilty of violating this act or the law, or is conducting its business in an unsafe manner, he shall, by an order under his hand and seal of office, addressed to the institution so offending, direct discontinuance of such illegal and unsafe practices, and he shall demand a conformity with the requirements of this act, and whenever any such savings bank shall refuse or neglect to comply with such order, he shall communicate the fact to the attorney-general of the state, whose duty it shall be to institute proceedings, against such savings banks, as are now, or may be hereafter, authorized in law in cases of insolvent corporations. The auditor of state may appoint, and the person or persons who may be appointed by him, to examine the affairs of any savings banks, shall have power to administer oaths to any person whose testimony may be required on any such examination, and to compel the appearance and attendance of any such person, for the purpose of such examination, by summons, subpoena, or attachment, in the manner now authorized in respect to the attendance of persons as witnesses in the courts of this state, and all books and papers which it may be deemed necessary to examine by the auditor, on the examination so appointed, shall be produced, and their production may be compelled in like manner. The expenses of any examination, made in pursuance of this act, shall be paid by the savings banks so examined, in such amount as the auditor shall certify to be just and reasonable.

SEC. 26. Every officer, agent, or clerk of any savings bank organized under this act, who shall willfully and knowingly subscribe or make any false statements or false entries in the books of such bank, or shall knowingly subscribe or exhibit false papers with the intent to deceive any person authorized to examine as to the condition of said institution, or shall willfully or knowingly subscribe or make false reports, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the state prison not less than two nor more than five years, and be forever after incapable of holding any office created by this act.

Penalty for false statements, false entries, exhibits, and reports.

SEC. 27. Intentional fraud on the part of savings banks organized under this act, or in deceiving the public or individuals in relation to their means or their liabilities, or diversion of the funds of the bank to other objects than those mentioned in its certificate of incorporation, and the payment of dividends which leave insufficient funds to meet the liabilities of the bank, shall subject those guilty thereof to fine of not less than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment of not less than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court, and shall cause a forfeiture of all the privileges herein conferred, and the court may proceed to close the bank by an information in the manner prescribed by law.

Intentional fraud punished.

SEC. 28. The paid-up capital of all savings banks organized and doing business under this act shall be subject to the same rates of taxation and rules of valuation as other taxable property, by the revenue laws of the state, which taxes shall be levied on and paid by the banks and not the individual stockholders, and the general assembly shall never impose any greater tax upon property employed in banking under this act than is or may be imposed upon the property of individuals. The franchise of all such banks, the savings and funds deposited therein, and the mortgages and other securities, wherever the same are invested, are not to be taxed, but are expressly exempted therefrom, and may be omitted from assessments of the bank required by the revenue laws of this state.

stock of said bank shall be necessary to an increase of the amount of capital stock. If at any meeting so called a sufficient number of votes have been given in favor of increasing the amount of capital stock, a certificate of the proceedings, showing a compliance with these provisions, the amount of capital stock actually paid in, and the amount to which the capital stock is to be increased, and the manner of such increase, shall be made out, signed, and verified by the affidavit of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, certified by a majority of the directors or trustees, and filed and recorded as required by the third section of this act. When this is done, the capital stock of the bank shall be increased to the amount specified in the certificate.

Voluntary dissolution.

SEC. 30. All savings banks organized under this act may be dissolved, prior to the period fixed upon in the certificate of incorporation, by the affirmative votes of stockholders holding three-fourths of the capital stock, at a meeting of stockholders to be called for this purpose in the manner and after publication of notice as required in the preceding section. In all cases of dissolution of a bank hereunder, or the commencement of proceedings under this act to close the same, the receiver or receivers appointed thereunder shall not be required or permitted by forced sale to sell the securities of said banks, but shall proceed as expeditiously as possible to collect the same and make distribution of proceeds to those entitled thereto.

Winding-up.

Existing banks reorganized.

SEC. 31. Any bank or association existing under and by virtue of any law of this state may be reorganized under the provisions of this act, and when duly organized all securities, real estate, or property may be transferred to such new organization; but no such reorganization shall have the effect to discharge the original bank, its directors or stockholders, from any liability to its depositors or any other person; but the same shall continue until legally discharged, and such new organization or bank shall be legally liable to pay every claim or demand existing against the bank whose assets or property, or any part thereof, it has received by reason of such reorganization. All such banks may avail themselves of the provisions [of] and become incorporated under this act, by filing with the recorder of the county in which the principal place of business is located, and a certified copy thereof in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate stating their intention and election to become so incorporated thereunder, which election and intention may be made and declared by the directors or trustees of such bank or association, or a majority of them. The certificate stating such intention may be signed by the president and secretary of such corporation, association, or bank, and shall be acknowledged before some officer competent to take acknowledgments of deeds; and in all other respects existing banks and associations reorganizing hereunder shall comply with, and conform to, all the provisions and requirements of this act with reference to the original organization of savings banks, so far as the same may be applicable, and as soon thereafter as the auditor's certificate is received and published, as hereinbefore provided, may proceed to transact business.

Mode of reorganization.

SEC. 32. Any saving[s] bank organized under the provisions of this act is hereby prohibited from advertising in any way, either by publication or otherwise, any greater amount of capital than such banks have [has] actually paid in, and such bank shall be subject to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each and every violation of this section.

Prohibited from advertising more capital than is paid in. Fine.

SEC. 33. All acts, and parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby declared to be inoperative so far as they affect this act.

Repeal.

Approved March 21st, 1874.

CHAPTER 61.

VACATION OF TOWN-PLATS.

AN ACT in Relation to Vacation of Town-Plats. [Additional to Code, S. F. 269. Title IV., Chapter 12: "Of Plats."]

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That whenever the owners of any piece of land, not less than 40 acres in amount, which has been platted into town-lots, and the plat of which has been recorded, shall desire to vacate said plat or part of plat, it may be done in manner following: A petition signed by all the owners of the town or part of the town to be vacated shall be filed in the clerk's office of the district court of the district in which the land so platted lies, and notice of such petition shall be given, at least four weeks before the meeting of the court, by posting notices in three conspicuous places in the town where the vacation is prayed for, and one upon the court-house door of the county. At the term of court next following the filing of petition and notice, the court shall fix a time for hearing the petition, and notice of the day so fixed upon shall be given by the clerk of the court in some newspaper published in the county at least one week before the day appointed for the hearing. At the hearing of the petition, if it shall appear that all the owners of lots in the town or part of town to be vacated desire the vacation, and that there is no valid objection thereto, a decree shall be entered vacating such portion of the town, and the streets, alleys, and avenues therein, and for all purposes of assessments such portion of the town shall be as it [if] it had never been platted into lots: Provided, however, That, if any street as laid out on the plat shall be needed for the public use, it shall be excepted from the order of vacation, and shall remain a public highway: And further provided, That this act shall not affect cities of the first and second class.

Plats may be vacated. Petition by all the owners.

Notice of same.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITIONS IN SCHOOLS.

AN ACT to Establish and Maintain Industrial Expositions in Public Schools of the State. [Additional to Code, Title XII., Chapter 9: "Of the System of Common Schools."]

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That it shall be the duty of the board of directors of independent school-districts, and the subdirector of each subdistrict, if they should deem it expedient, under the direction of the county superintendent, to introduce and maintain an industrial exposition in connection with each school under their control within this state. School-directors may establish under direction county superintendent.

SEC. 2. That these expositions shall consist of useful articles made by the pupils, such as samples of sewing, and cooking of all kinds, knitting, crocheting, and drawing, iron and wood-work of all kinds, from a plain box or horse-shoe to a house or steam-engine in miniature; also, all other useful articles known to the industrial world, or that may be invented by the pupils in connection with farm and garden products in their season, that are the results of their own toil. To consist of articles made, invented, or grown by pupils.

SEC. 3. That the pupils be required to explain the use and method of their work, and kind and process of culture [of] farm and garden products. Pupils to explain.

SEC. 4. That the parents and friends of the pupils be allowed and requested to be present at said exposition. Presence of parents and friends.

SEC. 5. That ornamental work shall be encouraged when accompanied by something useful made by the same pupil. Ornamental work. †

SEC. 6. That these expositions be held in the school-room upon a school-day as often as once a term, and not oftener than once a month. To be held in school rooms; how often.

Approved March 21st, 1874.

CHAPTER 65.

NON-USER OF RAILROAD RIGHT OF WAY.

AN ACT to Amend Section 1260, Chapter 4, Title 10 of the Code of Iowa [relating to Taking Private Property for Works of Internal Improvement].

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That section 1260, chapter 4, title 10, of the code of Iowa, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Code, § 1260.
Section 1260. In any case where a railway, constructed in whole or in part, has ceased to be operated or used for more than five years, or in any case where the construction of a railway has been commenced by any corporation or person and work on the Non-user for five years deemed an abandonment in favor of party entering upon the work.

same has ceased, and has not been in good faith resumed for more than five years, and the same remains unfinished, it shall be deemed and taken that such corporation or person thus in default has abandoned all right and privilege over so much as remains unfinished, as aforesaid, in favor of any other corporation or person which may enter upon such abandoned work as provided in section 1261.

Code, § 1261.

Approved March 21st, 1874.

CHAPTER 66.

REBATE OF TAXES ON PROPERTY DESTROYED.

AN ACT to Amend Section 800 of the Code of 1873 [Title VI., Chapter 1: "Of the Assessment of Taxes"].

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That section 800 of the code is repealed, and there is enacted in lieu thereof the following:

Code: substitute for § 800.

Rebate in case of destruction of buildings,
crops, stock,
or other property.

Section 800. The board of supervisors shall have power to rebate in whole or in part the taxes of any person whose buildings, crops, stock, or other property has been destroyed by fire, tornado, or other unavoidable casualty, if said property has not been sold for taxes or if said taxes have not been in default for thirty days at the time of destruction. But the loss for which such rebate is allowed shall be such only as is not covered by insurance.

Approved March 21st, 1874.

CHAPTER 67.

VOTING OF SCHOOL TAXES.

AN ACT Allowing School-Districts lying in two adjoining Counties the Right to vote Mills instead of specific Sums for School Purposes. [Additional to Code, Title XII., Chapter 9: "Of the System of Common Schools"].

Districts in two counties may vote mills for schools.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That all school-districts lying in two adjoining counties shall have the right to vote mills instead of specific sums for school purposes.

Approved March 21st, 1874.

CHAPTER 68.

AN ACT to Establish Reasonable Maximum Rates of Charges for the Transportation of Freight and Passengers on the Different Railroads of this State [Amendatory of Code, Title X., Chapter 5: "Of Railways."]

S. F. 12, 13, 25,
20, 40, 66, 73,
and 104.

RATES OF FARE AND FREIGHT.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That all railroad corporations organized or doing business in this state, their trustees, receivers, or lessees, under the laws or authority thereof, shall be limited in their maximum charges to the rates of compensation for the transportation of passengers and freight, which are herein prescribed. All railroads in this state shall be classified according to the gross amount of their respective annual earnings within the state, per mile, for the preceding year, as follows: Class "A" shall include all railroads whose gross annual earnings, per mile, shall be four thousand dollars ($4,000) or more. Class "B" shall include all railroads whose gross annual earnings, per mile, shall be three thousand dollars ($3,000) or any sum in excess thereof less than four thousand dollars ($4,000). Class "C" shall include all railroads whose gross annual earnings, per mile, shall be less than three thousand dollars ($3,000).

Classification of railroads.

SEC. 2. All railroad corporations, according to their classifications as herein prescribed, shall be limited to compensation per mile for the transportation of any person, with ordinary baggage, not exceeding one hundred pounds in weight as follows: Class "A" three cents; class "B" three and one-half cents; class "C" four cents: Provided, That no such corporation shall charge, demand, or receive any greater compensation per mile for the transportation of children twelve years of age or under, than half the rates above prescribed: And provided, also, A charge of ten cents may be added to the fare of any passenger, when the same is paid upon the cars, if a ticket might have been procured within a reasonable time before the departure of the train.

Maximum rates of fare.

SEC. 3. The tariff rates established in the following schedule shall be considered the basis on which to compute the compensation for transporting freights, goods, merchandise, or property over any line of railroads within this State:—

CHAPTER 70.

THE HERD LAW AMENDED.

AN ACT to Amend Chapter 3, Title XI. of the Code in relation to Domestic and other Animals.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That sections 1446, 1448, 1450, 1451, 1452, 1453, 1457, 1458, 1459, 1460, 1461, 1462, and 1463 of the code be and the same are hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof, to-wit:

Code; title xi., ch. 3.

SEC. 2. Section 1446. Every owner of swine, sheep, or goats shall restrain the same from running at large.

Swine, sheep, and goats restrained.

SEC. 3. Section 1448. When any person is injured in his lands, inclosed by a lawful fence, by any kind of domestic animal, he may recover his damages by an action against the owner, or by distraining the animals doing the damage; but if they were lawfully on the adjoining land, and escaped therefrom by reason of the neglect of the person suffering the damage to maintain his part of the division fence, the owner of the animals shall not be liable for such damage, and if the party injured elects to recover by action against the owner of the stock, no appraisalment need be made by the trustees as in cases of distraint; and in counties where by police regulation stock is restrained from running at large, any person injured in his improved or cultivated lands by any domestic animal may recover his damages as provided in section six of this act and sections 1454, 1455, and 1456 of the code, whether the lands whereon the injury was done was inclosed by a lawful fence or not.

Damages may be recovered for injuries done by stock in inclosures.

Owner not liable when.

Recovery when stock is restrained from running at large. §§ 1454-1456.

SEC. 4. Section 1450. Section 309 of the code is hereby amended by striking out the word "now" in the fifth line thereof; and the word "stock," as used therein and in this chapter, is hereby declared to mean cattle, horses, mules, and asses; and, under said section, the board of supervisors of each county may—and on petition of one-fourth of the legal voters thereof, as shown by the returns of the last general election, must—submit, in the manner provided by section 310 of the code, except as herein

Code, § 309, amended.

Meaning of "stock."

Board of supervisors of each county may—submit question to popular vote. § 310.

modified, to the electors of the county at the next general election, or, if they deem it advisable, at a special election called for that purpose, the following questions of police regulation, or either of them, and no others, to-wit :

Questions that may be submitted.

First. Shall stock be restrained from running at large ?

Second. Shall stock be restrained from running at large between sunset and sunrise ?

Third. Shall stock be restrained from running at large from the first day of (naming the month) in each year, until the first day of (naming the month) following?

Fourth. Shall stock be restrained from running at large between sunset and sunrise from the first day of (naming the month) in each year, until the first day of (naming the month) following ?

Regulation in force when.

SEC. 5. Section 1451. If at such election a majority of the electors voting thereon, shall vote in favor of either of such regulations, then the same shall take effect and be in force at the end of thirty days after said election, and shall continue in force until the end of ninety days after an election at which, on a resubmission of the same question, a majority of the electors of the county voting thereon shall vote against the same: Provided, That where any county prior, to the taking effect of this act, shall have voted, on the submission of such question "for restraining "stock from running at large;" or "for restraining stock from "running at large between the hours of sunset and sunrise," as provided in chapter 3, title 11, of the code, or in the law or laws to which the same is amendatory, such vote is hereby declared to be legal and valid, and to amount to an adoption by the county of the police regulation so voted for, as the same is herein set out as fully and effectually as if the same was submitted and voted for under this act, except that the same shall be and remain in force in such county until the end of thirty days after the next general election and no longer unless readopted thereat.

Proviso: regulation declared in force in counties adopting provisions of herd law.

Owner of stock liable for damage where police regulation is adopted.

How recovered.

Proviso: when animals shall not be considered running at large.

SEC. 6. Section 1452. The owner of any stock or domestic animal, prohibited by law or police regulation of any country from running at large at any of the times hereinbefore mentioned, shall be liable for all damages done thereby while wrongfully remaining at large upon the public highway or upon the improved or cultivated lands of another, which may be recovered by action at law, or the party injured may, at his option, distrain the trespassing animals, and retain the same in some safe place, at the expense of the owner, until the damages are paid as provided in section[s] 1454, 1455, and 1456 of the code: Provided, That no stock or domestic animal, except the male animals mentioned in section 1447 of the code, shall be considered as running at large, so long as the same is upon unimproved or uncultivated lands, and under the immediate care and control of the owner, or upon the public highway under like care and control, for the purpose of travel or driving thereon.

Who to be considered owner.

SEC. 7. Section 1453. The word owner, as used in the preceding and in the three succeeding sections of this chapter of the code, shall include the person entitled to the present possession of the animal, and also the person having the care or charge of the same, as well as the person having the legal title thereto.

SEC. 8. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect immediately from and after its publication in The Iowa State Register, and the Iowa State Leader, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa, anything in the code notwithstanding. Publication clause.

Approved March 28th, 1874.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published at Des Moines, in The Iowa Daily State Leader March 31, and in The Iowa Daily State Register April 1, 1874.

JOSIAH T. YOUNG, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 71.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE LANDS.

AN ACT to Regulate the Leasing of the Lands belonging to the Iowa State Agricultural College.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa: The board of trustees of the Iowa state agricultural college and farm are hereby authorized to lease the land granted to the State of Iowa by an act of Congress entitled, "An act donating public lands to the several states and territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts," approved July 2d, 1862, in amount not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to any one person, for a term not exceeding ten years, the lessee to pay eight per cent. per annum in advance upon the price of said land, which is hereby declared to be not less than fifty per cent. additional to the price at which each piece of said land, respectively, was appraised by the board of trustees in the year 1865; and the said lessee shall have the privilege of purchasing said land at the expiration of the lease at the price aforesaid. The lessee failing to pay the interest upon said lease, within sixty days from the time the same becomes due, shall forfeit his lease, together with the interest paid thereon, and the improvements made on said land. Board of trustees may lease lands.
