Thanklggiving' Coming: Lett' Talk Turkey!

Thanksgiving may be a couple of weeks away, but the Iowa Lottery is already talking about turkey!
"Let's Talk Turkey" is a new instant-scratch ticket that began sales in October. The ticket promotes the Iowa Turkey Federation's newly redesigned Web site at www. iowaturkey.org. There, players can find great recipes just in time for the Thanksgiving holiday - as well as information on the different ways to prepare your holiday bird and even ideas about what to do with the leftovers!
The Iowa Lottery and the Iowa Turkey Federation have worked together on several projects over the years, most recently at the 2007 Iowa State Fair. Turkey coupons were distributed to lottery players who found a colored dot on the back of pull-tab tickets they purchased at the lottery's booth in the Varied Industries Building.
Let's Talk Turkey is a $$ 1$ scratch game. If a player finds three "turkey" symbols in any row, column or diagonal, then he/she wins the prize shown. Over 2,500 top prizes of $$ 100$ are up for grabs, as well as thousands of smaller prizes. Approximately 1.5 million tickets have been produced in the game. The overall odds of winning a prize are about 1 in 4.86 .

Fun Turkey Facts:

Iowa is among the top ten turkey-producing states. In 2006, Iowa raised more than 8.1 million turkeys.

The majority of turkeys raised in Iowa are raised on independent family farms.
Toms and hens are raised separately. A turkey grower will raise one or the other.
Turkey sandwiches account for 48 percent of all turkey consumption.
Turkey is not the culprit to drowsiness. A recent study shows that a carbohy-drate-rich, not protein-rich, Thanksgiving meal increases levels of tryptophan in the brain and creates drowsiness. (Source: www.iowaturkey.org)

Note about the next "Lottery Action": "Lottery Action" will not be published the week of Nov. 19 due to the Thanksgiving Day holiday. The next issue will be released on Nov. 26. Have a safe and happy holiday!

Burlington Man Cashes in with Powertall!

A Burlington man was recently surprised to learn he'd won a large lottery prize.
Ira Stewart, 79, won
$\$ 200,000$ in the Oct. 13 Powerball ${ }^{\circledR}$ drawing. He purchased the winning ticket at Hy-Vee, 3140 Agency St. in Burlington.

Stewart said he and his wife Ira Stewart of Burlington were out of town when the drawing occurred and didn't know they'd won big until Sunday evening.
"She was sitting there reading the paper and I reached over and got the ticket," he said. "I said, 'Here, tell me which one number I got this time.' And she looked at that and said, 'Honey, come here.' I said, 'What's the matter?' She said, 'Look at this. You call off the number and I'm going to check it off'. So I called off the numbers, she checked them off and I looked at it and [thought] 'Oh, my gosh!""
Stewart originally thought that because he hadn't matched the Powerball number, he hadn't won anything.
"She said, 'You don't have to have the Powerball number to win. We've got all five [other] numbers,'" he recalled his wife telling him. He's sure glad he listened to her!

Stewart said he will pay some bills and buy a camper with his prize money. He will save the remainder of his winnings for a later date.
If Stewart had played the Power Play option, he would have won $$ 600,000$ !

Players can multiply their prizes (except the jackpot) with the Power Play up to five times. The cost is $$ 1$ per play.
As a regular Powerball player, Stewart often tells his kids they should be playing, too.
"I say, 'Go play the lottery. You never know!"' he smiled. &
