One of Eight 'Set of Wheels' Semifinalists Will Win Tahoe Hybrid

Eight Iowa Lottery players will be part of a drawing at the Iowa State Fair to determine which one of them will get to go green by winning the nation's first full-size hybrid sport utility vehicle.

The eight players were selected as semifinalists in the lottery's "Set of Wheels" promotion that began in May and will culminate with a grand prize drawing on Aug. 7 at the State Fair. The grand prize in the promotion is a new, 2008 four-wheel drive Chevy Tahoe Hybrid®, which was named "Green Car of the Year" by the Green Car Journal and has won several automotive excellence awards at national auto shows.

The Tahoe Hybrid vehicle package is valued at more than $79,000! And, the Tahoe Hybrid offers up to 50 percent better city fuel economy over the non-hybrid Tahoe.

The semifinalists are:

Raymond Craig of North Liberty

Nancy Fear of Milford

Kevin Holtkamp of Burlington

James Hunt Sr. of Marshalltown

Shirley Miller of Osceola

David Seda of Marion

Becky Venneman of Ames

and Ben Copeland of Omaha, Neb.

During the State Fair event, semifinalists will be eliminated as their names are drawn until the final name remaining in the drawing drum wins the Tahoe Hybrid. Each semifinalist invited to the drawing at the fair will receive hotel accommodations and $200 spending cash from the lottery. The semifinalists who do not win the sport utility vehicle also will receive a $500 ethanol card they can use to purchase fuel.

Action Briefs

The SUV package winner will receive the vehicle, a $500 ethanol card and $1,000 cash.

Ken Brickman, the lottery's acting CEO, said the lottery is pleased to offer a hybrid vehicle as a prize.

"We're all experiencing the extremes of today's fuel prices, and a vehicle like the Tahoe Hybrid can help keep the focus on fuel economy," Brickman said.

Players entered the Set of Wheels promotion by visiting the Iowa Lottery's Web site at www.ialottery.com and entering the serial number from a non-winning $20 "Set For Life" instant-scratch ticket. More than 12,000 entries were received during the entry period from May 23 through July 13. 🚗

$15,000 Win Makes Man's Life Easier

Mike Lamar of Red Oak

Mike Lamar, 52, of Red Oak won $15,000 playing the “Lucky Wheel” instant-scratch scratch game. He purchased the winning ticket at Kum & Go, 710 N. Broadway St. in Red Oak.

“I bought two tickets and the second ticket was the $15,000 winner,” Lamar recalled with a chuckle. “I was in my truck [when I scratched the ticket] and I couldn’t get out of my truck. I realized I was shaking.... I couldn’t move. I had to look at it two or three times to believe that I’d actually won it.”

Lamar said he has plans for his prize money already.

“We’ve got to pay bills and the girls are going to get some new school clothes. [It’s] just going to make things easier,” he said. 🚗
